Tesseron Cognac's
in Time for the Holidays

Royal Blend is Just

The Royal Blend from Tesseron Cognac has come just in time for the holidays. The limited release decanter holds a selection of 50 "distinct Grande Champagne blends from Ugni Blanc and Columbard grapes, all aged for more than two generations in the renowned Tesseron family's Paradis cellars."

"I'm especially proud to release this dramatic blend of enchanting old cognacs, made by request for one of the European royal families," says Alfred Tesseron. As a tribute to the family, the Royal Blend carries a bright, floral and fruity taste profile, and is limited to only 1,000 bottles.
