Interview With Christian Navarro

DECEMBER 10, 2009

RobbReport.com asks wine expert Christian Navarro, a partner in the renowned Wally's Wine and Spirits in Los Angeles, about his favorite wines, spirits, champagne, and more. Christian offers his inside advice about collecting wines, reveals his favorite stops while traveling in Napa Valley, and shares his favorite restaurants in the world.

What is the ultimate wine or spirit gift?

Tesseron Extreme Grande Champagne Cognac. Alfred Tesseron of the world-famous Château Pontet Canet, along with the Tesseron family, has just released for the first time ever the best of the best, which is composed of a unique blend of eaux-de-vie, drawn from stocks that age back over three generations. This cognac is extremely velvety and supple with an unparalleled mellowness and complexity. This Tesseron comes in a 1.75-liter demijohn patterned after the famous 19th-century 25-liter "Dame Jeanne" bottle.
